JUDGES OF THE SUPREME COURT.

Des Moines, Iowa, Sept. 18-06

My Dear Miss Downey: Glad to learn my suggestion to Mr. Lee is acceptable to you, and I have written him reminding him of his promise on receiving it. If any circumstance makes it inconvenient to carry it out, he will write you to that effect. You will hear from him soon, I trust.

If the Lees are home by the 10th, we both will plan to attend: but can't afford to take the children out of school.

Anticipating a very pleasant time with you.
Yours truly,
Suey.

Johnson Brigham.
