April 13, 1906.

My dear Miss Downey:

Yours of the 12th inst. is just received. As you know, the January Quarterly has been long delayed, but the delay was not in this office, but at the state printer's. I reprinted your report as it appeared in Public Libraries, as I could not wait for your report and we read proof of it some weeks ago. The printer claimed that it was printed when we last telephoned to him, but they have not yet been delivered to us. You wrote me long ago that you were sending this, but nothing reached me and I therefore concluded you had changed your mind about it.

Very truly yours,

Alice S. Tyler
Secretary.
